ONLY ONE IDEAL PARK FAVORITE.

Col. M. Lewis Clark was in the Ideal Park stand as presiding judge yesterday. The Colonel was warmly welcomed by the public, which displayed its confidence in placing bets on favorites.

It was a bad afternoon for favorites, only one, Walkover, at odds on, winning. Mr. Clark had plenty of occasion for action and took it. Minerva's race was questioned and Ham's ride on Blaise Rock investigated. Both needed attention.

There was a Saturday crowd of 3,000 out and every book in the ring handled all it wished to. The mile handicap was the racing feature and Gustave Cook won it as he pleased. His performance was a sudden shock to form players. It was a false race as Millie M and Simmons were bumped out of it on second turn.

Walkover, perhaps is the fastest horse at the track at five furlongs. He won again yesterday and did it easily. The Elkton Stock Farm's maiden Blaise Rock was behind him and ran an excellent race. He is by far the best maiden here.

Thurston, now at his best, swiftly galloped away from Orinda, Sunburst and Semper Lex. The Harlem Stable's highly bred colt Right Royal, by Prince Royal—Palmetto, died of lung fever yesterday.
